BEHAVIOUR

The Rules of MotorsportUK, the governing body, apply to the conduct of all Members.

All Members are required to conduct themselves responsibly in order to maintain the Club's good image.

Members who do not pay their relevant fees or whose behaviour is not reasonable will be referred to the Committee and may be asked to leave the Club.

Any MotorsportUK competition licence holder, who is disqualified from driving by a court of law must surrender their licence and may not compete in any event for the duration of the disqualification.

Any MotorsportUK licenced official who is disqualified from driving by a court of law must notify MotorsportUK and may not drive or officiate in any position in which they may be called upon to make a judicial decision for the duration of the disqualification.

Any event official who does not require a licence to carry out event duties should notify MotorsportUK and not drive or officiate in any position in which they may be called upon to make a judicial decision for the duration of the disqualification.

Event observers and judges of fact are exempt from this requirement.

CODE OF CONDUCT

- Respect the decision of event officials
- Treat all competitors, marshals and officials equally with respect
- Maintain the highest standards of driving behaviour
- Do not discriminate against individuals for any reason, whether as a result of race, colour, gender, marital status, sexuality, age, disability, occupation, religion or political persuasion

Failure to comply with this code may result in stringent sanctions being imposed by Motorsport UK and the National Court.

EVENTS

A Member may organise a competitive event, subject to permission from the Committee and in accordance with the General Regulations of MotorsportUK.

Event entries are normally to be submitted electronically through the Club website and payment generally made by bank transfer to the Club's account.

It is the competitors' responsibility to see that they and their car comply with the regulations for each event and that they have all the documentation required. This does not preclude inspection by a scrutineer appointed by or to any event.

Social Events may be organised by a Member subject to the Committee's consent.

The Club currently organises events in the following disciplines:

- Autocross
- Autotest
- Hillclimb
- Navigational Scatters
- Sprint - co-promoted
- Trials - Car, Classic and Sporting

AWARDS

Each event will have an award for the overall winner plus other awards depending on the number of entries, class, gender, experience of competitor, for example:

- Overall winner trophy
- Class win
- 2nd in Class - subject to 5 starters in class
- 3rd in Class - subject to 9 starters in class

Plus, subject to regulations for each event:

- Ladies Award - subject to a minimum of three starters and no superior award having been won.
- Novice Award - subject to a minimum of three starters and no superior award having been won. To be eligible for this award you cannot have been awarded a trophy for this discipline previously.

Classes with less than 3 entries may be amalgamated for the purpose of awards by the Clerk of the Course and this must be announced prior to the start of the competition. Amalgamations are generally 'up' a class.

AWARDS - TRIALS

Awards may be determined by the Index of Performance method i.e. the best 5 scores in each class are used to determine the average. If there are less than 5 in a class, the class winner score is repeated to reach the required number. See Event Supplementary Regulations
